SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1)

The defendant shall participate in a program of testing and treatment for drug abuse, as directed by the probation officer, until such time as the defendant is released from treatment by the probation officer. The defendant is to pay part or all of the cost of this treatment, at an amount not to exceed the cost of treatment, as deemed appropriate by the probation officer. Payments shall never exceed the cost of urinalysis and counseling. The actual co-payment schedule shall be determined by the probation officer.

2) The defendant shall pay any special assessment that is imposed by this judgment, (and that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release),

The defendant shall provide the probation officer access to any requested financial information, including tax returns, and shall authorize the probation office to conduct credit checks and obtain copies of income tax returns.

The defendant shall not open any new lines of credit and/or incur new debt without the prior permission of the probation officer.

3) The defendant shall participate in a mental health treatment program, as directed by the probation officer. The defendant is to pay part or all costs of this treatment, at an amount not to exceed the cost of treatment, as deemed appropriate by the probation officer. Payments shall never exceed the total cost of mental health counseling. The actual co-payment schedule shall be determined by the probation officer.

4) The defendant shall submit his person, property, place of residence, vehicle, and personal effects to a search at any time of the day or night, with or without a warrant, with or without probable cause, and with or without reasonable suspicion, by a probation officer or any federal, state or local law enforcement officer. Failure to submit to such a search may be grounds for revocation; the defendant shall warn any residents that the premises may be subject to searches.

5) The defendant shall not own or possess any firearms, ammunition, destructive devices, or other dangerous weapons.

6) The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer.
